

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, for 10 years, the Seattle-King County Clinic has demonstrated unwavering dedication and commitment to providing essential health services to thousands of individuals in our region, particularly those who are uninsured, underinsured, or without access to comprehensive care; and

WHEREAS, the Seattle-King County Clinic has exemplified the power of community collaboration by bringing together health professionals, volunteers, and community partners to deliver life-changing services – including medical exams, dental care, vision services, and more – free of charge to individuals and families in need; and

WHEREAS, the tireless work of the Seattle-King County Clinic and its volunteers is a testament to the compassion, generosity, and solidarity that define our city and county, serving as a model for how communities can address healthcare disparities in a meaningful and impactful way; and

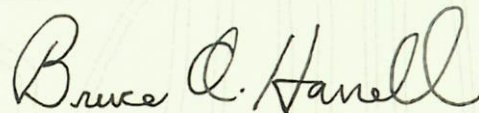

WHEREAS, the Seattle-King County Clinic's effort in partnership with local businesses, city agencies, and medical providers, have strengthen public health infrastructure and contributed to a healthier, more resilient community for all who call Seattle and King County home; and

WHEREAS, the Seattle-King County Clinic has played a critical role in ensuring equitable access to healthcare – exemplifying our vision for a thriving, inclusive, and innovative One Seattle for all residents; and

WHEREAS, the City of Seattle recognizes the Seattle-King County Clinic – its dedicated volunteers, healthcare professionals, and community partners – whose impact will continue to shape and inspire our city for generations to come.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRUCE A. HARRELL, MAYOR OF SEATTLE, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM APRIL 7th, 2025, 2025 TO BE

Access to Healthcare Day

Mayor Bruce A. Harrell
City of Seattle

